Sparkling wine & Champagne

Col de Mez' Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore Extra Dry NV Soligo £34

(Glera grape variety) Suitable for Vegan VENETO REGION

A floral bouquet with hints of linden followed by traces of pineapple, lime and golden delicious apple, closing with a slight mineral note. SOO GOOD!!

Prosecco Col fondo 2016 Zanotto £35

(Glera grape variety not filtered) VENETO REGION

A slightly sparkling, natural, unfiltered white wine. The second fermentation takes place once a year around Easter. Pale yellow with greenish hues. The aroma recalls toasted bread crust with delicate notes of apple and citrus. On the palate, the wine is dry, complex and pleasant with its typical notes of yeast and fruit. Lightly salty and very mineral on the finish. Can be served clear by leaving the lees deposited or slightly opaque, with a slight shake of the bottle for a more rustic, decisive flavour.

Franciacorta Brut “Cuvee alla moda” NV Monzio Compagnoni £59

(Pinot nero & Chardonnay) LOMBARDY REGION

The fresh and acidic sensations are balanced by a hint of vanilla softness and, more on the nose, of apple, which fills and accompanies the palate for a long time; the final mouth however returns to be gritty

Champagne Brut Classic NV Deutz £98

(Pinot nero , Chardonnay & Pinot Meunier) CHAMPAGNE REGION-FRANCE

The NV Brut Classic has a clear but rather simple bouquet that shows green walnut, salty licorice and ripe pear aromas. Fruity, quite sweet and round on the palate, with vineyard peach flavors, this is a mouthful of fruity yet rather loud Champagne. The Brut Classic blends 28% Chardonnay with 42% Pinot Noir and 30% Meunier and was aged on the lees in bottle for 30 months.

Champagne Brut Blanc de Blancs NV Linard-Gotier £75

(Chardonnay grape variety not filtered) CHAMPAGNE REGION-FRANCE

Full flavoured with initial sweetness followed by a really crisp, light finish. A very fine, lively mousse with great balance as the acidity is tempered by the fruit. nay grape variety. I LIKE IT!!

Franciacorta Riserva "Annamaria Clementi" 2001 Ca' del Bosco £180

(Pinot nero, Chardonnay & Pinot Bianco) LOMBARDY REGION

The Cuvée Annamaria Clementi is the result of seeking excellence in both vineyard and cellar. The base wines are created exclusively through the alcoholic fermentation of first-portion must (about 40% of grape weight) conducted in small oak barrels, where they are aged for around 7 months. No compromises, no concessions: only the finest base wines, from at least 10 different batches, are later blended to create this extraordinary cuvée. Very long bottle fermentation on the yeasts in underground cellars at a constant temperature of 12°C, gives it the profile of a Franciacorta absolute.

Champagne Rosè Brut NV Deutz £120

(Pinot noir grape variety) CHAMPAGNE REGION-FRANCE

This pale pink Champagne, made from 100% Pinot Noir, is the pinnacle of excellence. It has a subtle nose of fresh strawberries, cherries and raspberries. The aromas are carried onto the elegant palate with added notes of pomegranate and gooseberry.

A wonderful Lugana. Full flavoured with body and complexity. Pure, beautifully structured with a long finish. This wine is lovely.

Ribolla Gialla Collio doc 2018 Tenuta Roncalto £53

FRIULI VENEZIA GIULIA REGION

Tenuta RoncAlto Ribolla Gialla Collio DOC from Livon shimmers straw yellow in the glass. The bouquet unfolds floral and fruity aromas, with hints of yellow blossoms and yellow fleshy fruit, citrus notes to bergamot, herbs and mineral nuances. On the palate, this Ribolla Gialla from the family Tenuta RoncAlto in Collio, which is very typical of this variety, is lively, fresh, balanced and tasty with a long, pleasant finish.

Friulano collio doc 2018 Tenuta stella £49

(Tocai Friulano grape variety) FRIULI VENEZIA GIULIA REGION

Fermented and aged in steel, it owes its longevity to the long aging on the lees before bottling. Fermentation is carried out by indigenous yeasts, with strict temperature control.The scent is rich in fruity notes, which in the finish give way to almond notes typical of the variety, and blend well with the mineral characteristics conferred by the territory. In the mouth it is fresh and persistent, a very drinkable wine

Riesling Alto Adige 'Montiggl 2018 St Michael –Eppan £48

ALTO ADIGE REGION

The Riesling “Montiggl” of the St. Michael Eppan winery is a superior wine, made exclusively with Riesling grapes. The Riesling is a German grape that has found in Trentino Alto Adige a second home; to give life to fresh and mineral wines it needs special environmental conditions, like the cool and sunny climate of the vineyards of the hills of Trentino Alto Adige. It has a nice yellow color with green reflexes, while its nose is intense and fruity, aromatic with hints of apricot and lemon.

Curtefranca Bianco “Bianco della Seta” 2015 Monzio Compagnoni £65

(Chardonnay grape variety) LOMBARDY REGION

Straw yellow colour with a beautiful golden reflection. Fruity notes such as peach and mango, also vanilla. Very full-bodied taste, hints of exotic fruits.

Pinot Bianco “Strahler” 2018 Stroblhof £59

ALTO ADIGE REGION

The Strahler is beautifully fresh, with finely-tuned acids supporting its ripe and generous fruit tones. Fermented and matured partially in large oak casks and partially in super-stainless steel tanks, this light yet still complex white was blended from 90% Pinot Bianco and a 10% splash-of-a-blend of Pinot Grigio and Chardonnay.

Bianco “Jakot” 2012 Dario Princic £90

FRIULI-VENEZIA GIULIA REGION

Dario Princic is one of the masters of orange wine. Like so many of the regions stars, his cantina is based in Oslavia in Friuli's Collio, where the firm ‘ponca’ soils and steep slopes produce wines of remarkable structure, power and balance that can age for decades. Along with Stanko Radikon, Dario Princic is producing the very best orange wines available. Tocai friulano grown over sandstone and clay, 22 weeks skin contact and aged for 2 years in oak.

Langhe Chardonnay “Elioro ” 2017 Cordero di Montezemolo £120

PIEDMONT REGION

Intense yellow – gold; on the nose: citrus, grapefruit, banana, toasted hazelnut, honey and slight note of oak. In the mouth, fat, powerful and fresh with a long, persistent finish. Given its substantial structure, this wine pairs particularly well with a wide range of dishes, from chicken galantine, seafood antipasti, crustacean first courses, soups (like minestrone or cream of mushroom, potatoes or leeks), salads with chicken. Excellent with seafood and fish.

Central , Islands & South Italy

Trebbiano d'Abruzzo " Collecavalieri " 2018 Cantina Tollo £26

ABRUZZO REGION

A full-flavoured yet delicate Trebbiano, with a slight almond finish, which brings fruit aromas and floral notes. Ideal as an aperitif and to accompany fish dishes, and also perfect to serve with white meat and soft cheese.SO JUICY!!!

Verdicchio dei castelli di Jesi classico Superiore "Atavico" 2018 Moncaro £43

MARCHE REGION

Straw-yellow in colour, flecked with green and gold. Compelling on the nose with aromas of stone-fruit, wild herbs, blackberry and acacia blossoms, and light hints of broom. Impressive intensity. Lean and dry yet rounded, delicate and smooth. Its crisp acidity and fresh fruit, complemented by the wine's ageing on the lees, contribute substantially to its great balance as well as its significant body and weight.

Falanghina "Aia dei Fuschi" 2018 Telaro £39

CAMPANIA REGION

Straw yellow in colour. Elegant, floral and fragrant with notable scents of pineapple, peach intermingled with broom, rose and hints of sage. Balanced and pleasant to taste with underlying delicate walnut scents.

Fiano di Avellino 2017 Tenecchia Maffei £44

CAMPANIA REGION

Vitis Apicia, Fiano di Avellino 's grape variety was brought in Italy by Greeks. The first Fiano vines were planted in Lapio, the same municipality where the wine is still produced nowadays. The name Vitis Apicia o Apina come from a peculiarity of this very sweet grape that attracts bee swarms in the vineyards. From Apina came Apiana, then Afiana and then Fiano.

Bianco di Baal 2018 Casa di Baal £45

(Fiano, Moscato & Falanghina) CAMPANIA REGION

Central Italy & Islands

Montepulciano d’Abruzzo “Collecavalieri” 2018 Cantina Tollo

£26

ABRUZZO REGION

Ruby red in colour with purple highlights. Small red berry fruits on the palate. Morello cherry and a delicate and spicy touch on the finish. Medium bodied, well structured with soft and well balanced tannins. ONE BOTTLE IS NOT ENOUGH!!!!

Bolgheri rosso “Scire” 2017 Ceralti

£43

(Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc & Merlot) TUSCANY REGION

The Ceraltis have been farmers for several generations in Bolgheri, and after many years of selling grapes to Ornellaia and Sassacaia, 10 years ago, they built their own winery and are now bottling their entire estates' grape production This is their entry level Bolgheri DOC wine which means the grapes come from the best region of Bolgheri. A big, fruity red, almost New World in style except for the vibrant acidity and firm backbone of tannins. The bright fruit evokes black cherry and black currant flavors, while cedar and leather notes add depth.

Chianti Classico 2016 Rocca di Castagnoli

£45

(Sangiovese & Canaiolo) TUSCANY REGION

Chianti Classico DOCG 2016 - Rocca di Castagnoli Wine Description Lots of fruit, balsamic and vinous notes and wood nuances fulfill the nose. The taste has a lot of extract and wonderfully integrated oak.

Cannonau di sardegnna “Keramos” 2015 Tenute Soletta £62

SARDINIA REGION

This full-bodied red opens with aromas of ripe plum, vanilla and a hint of charred topsoil. The warm, chewy palate has flavors of ripe black cherry, licorice, baking spice and coffee bean while a note of bitter almond signals the finish.

Brunello di Montalcino docg 2015 Villa i cipressi £89

(Sangiovese grape variety) TUSCANY REGION

Opens to succulent dark fruit with thick layers of black cherry, blackberry and nicely integrated spice... Full and rich... This is a delightful and complete Tuscan wine.ELEGANT!!!

Chianti classico Riserva “Il Campitello” 2016 Monteraponi £115

(Sangiovese grape variety) TUSCANY REGION

In the glass it shows a ruby red color tending to garnet. The nose is dominated by aromas of red fruit and spices, which gradually fade towards notes of tobacco and medicinal herbs. On the palate it is full-bodied, powerful, compact, with a sip characterized by a savory taste. End with a long finish.

Torgiano rosso Riserva “Rubesco” 2001 Lungarotti £135

(Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon & Canaiolo) UMBRIA REGION

An elegant wine with solid structure, deep ruby colour and complex aroma that recalls marasca cherries and blackberries, followed by notes of violet, light mentholated hints and a spicy finish. A wine of great concentration, fruity and slightly balsamic, it has soft and velvety tannins with a long, lingering finish.

"Pietradonice" 2001 Casanova di Neri £320

(Cabernet Sauvignon grape variety) TUSCANY REGION

Mostly (95%) cabernet, less than a thousand cases made, so only 30 or so barriques of wine in total. This is a unicorn wine. Lovely blackcurrant and tertiary notes on the nose, the palate with deep cigar-box, tar and anise, some soy sauce-like notes from this bottle. Colour bricking and tannins becoming quite noticeable on the long finish. Probably coming to the end of its drinking window. Great with osso buco, lamb shanks, suckling lamb or pork belly.

Brunello di Montalcino “Cerretalto” 1999 Casanova di Neri £420

(Sangiovese grape variety) TUSCANY REGION

A spectacular wine from Montalcino, the beautiful color of Cerretalto, deep ruby, compact and impenetrable. The olfactory impact is intense, persistent, rich and fascinating, an excellent dosage of wood is perceived, complex sensations of wild berries and spices, blackberry, black cherry, pepper, oak, cocoa, tobacco leaf, licorice. Mineral and balsamic notes, all with truly exemplary elegance. Superb quality. In the mouth it explodes at the first sip, showing an incredible balance between alcohol, fine and strong tannins, structure, fruit, flavor. A true champion, among the best tasted and perhaps the best of the year. The persistence is admirable, with the fleshy fruit that returns overbearing and sweet, surrounded by very fine spices, clove, pink pepper, nutmeg, without ever turning towards bitter or cloying tones. An unforgettable wine!!!

Brunello di Montalcino “Cerretalto” 2000 Casanova di Neri £450

(Sangiovese grape variety) TUSCANY REGION

The Brunello di Montalcino Cerretalto is produced from a selection of vineyards situated in the natural amphitheatre by the Asso river. The particular microclimate, the "terroir", the low production per vine and the great attention to detail in the winery together produce a well balanced wine with character and good alcohol content. It is only produced when we consider the quality of the grapes harvested to be excellent. It is aged for about 2 years in small oak casks and then for at least 36 months in the bottle.

Sweet wines

75ml by the glass

Recioto della valpolicella Classico (0,50) 2015 Villa Crine £ 13 / £ 65

(corvina, molinara & rondinella) VENETO REGION

Villa Crine's Recioto is the pride of the winery. Corvina Veronese 60%, Rondinella 30%, Molinara 10%. It's colour is a captivating and profound garnet. The nose has aromas of dried sour cherries, alcohol infused plums, and rose flowers. On the palate the wine is bold and persuasive, with rich flavours and wonderfully balanced sugars which are never overpowering.

Isola dei Nuraghi Moscato Passito” Hermes” (0,50) 2017 £ 10 / £ 55

SARDINIA REGION

Hermes by Tenute Soletta is amber yellow. The nose is very intense and persistent, with intense aromas of Mediterranean flowers and plants and dried fruits. On the palate it is sweet, warm with a predominant softness, with an excellent structure with intense and persistent taste sensations particularly distinct from the aftertaste of bitter honey.
